BLAISE KOLODYCHUK'S

NANDI BEAR HIENANTS

BLAISE KOLODYCHUK PRESENTS:

NANDI BEAR TENANTS: THE REVENGE OF SUPER PUNK

Naiad Bear. Half Bear Half Human.

Niece of Auntie Nandi, and soul heir to her amazing mansion where Naiad and her group of friends not only live, but where they run a delightful mercantile and also team up to save the world from time to time.

But this isn't the Nandi Bear Mansion. And Naiad is pretty sure it isn't even Earth.

When she woke up this morning she was somewhere unknown, and none of her group of friends was around to help.

Hello? Is anybody here? How did I end up in this place?

Down by her feet a little lizard walks up to her.

Hey there little fella, do you know how I got here?

I do, but I can't say. You should get off the street.

Get off the street? Why?

Because he's coming.

In the distance Naiad can here someone calling her name...

NAIAAAAAD...

Who is it?

You'll find out, follow me!

The lizard runs off and Naiad has no choice but to follow.

Naiad and the Lizard end up at a tree.

Meanwhile the voice still calls out her name.

We'll be safe here.

Why, what is this place?

It's just a tree. A tree with no reason. That reminds me, I wanted you to meet my friends...

Right before Naiad's eyes the lizard turns into a snake, and is joined by four other snakes.

You weren't a lizard at all! Just a snake in Lizard's clothing!

Yesss and now it's time to get some answers!

The snakes quickly slither onto Naiad, and keep her tied to the tree.

Meanwhile the leader wraps himself around her neck and looks deep into her eyes.

I'm stronger than you, you snake!

Just look into my eyes Naiad.. Look deep into my eyes...

Help! Dorriss, anybody! Help me!!

The Nandi Bear Mercantile. A shop connected to the back of the Nandi Bear Mansion, where our band of heroes and friends make their home.

Rose runs the place ever since the previous boss, a giant glowing ghost of a french head, let his gambling get the better of him.

Dorriss Doom has just woken up...

Good Morning Raca, Rose...

Good Morning Dorriss, are you looking for a breakfast burrito? Because we are all out.

Yeah, Veltrax and Captain Trash took them all when they left for that weird mission.

No, I'm good I already had a tin of fancy feast in the kitchen. But I was looking for Naiad. We were supposed to go out to the flea market today.

Haven't seen her.

Have you asked Stensor? They have been spending a lot of time together lately.

And you've been spending a lot of time with Captain Trash.

Meh. I like guys who carry around trash can lids. Sue me.

I'll go check in Stensor's room.

Up in Stensor's room Dorriss discovers Galaxy Peanut Butter Bear (Naiad's Brother) and Stensor busy working on a strange machine.

Hey guys, have you seen Naiad? I was supposed to go out with her this morning, but I can't find her anywhere.

Um.. Dorriss.. Well that's the thing...

What thing? And why is Galaxy here? And why are you guys building some strange machine at 7 o'clock in the morning?

Well Dorriss, these are all connected questions.. And.. And, I'll let Stensor explain.

Okay human, start explaining.

Well, long story short Naiad is missing.

I know, that's why I'm looking for her!

I mean, I think she's been kidnapped...

Kidnapped?!

Other long story short, Stensor let Super Punk not only come back to life, but also escape from a psychic prison.. And we are pretty sure he has kidnapped Naiad and brought her somewhere. *

I'm not liking this, Stensor. Okay. Where did Super Punk take her??

We have no idea.. But that's why we are building this machine. Galaxy thinks that if we use Peanut Butter Dimension Energy to run this machine we will be able to track her.

This better work. And you better fix this. Let me know as soon as you get an answer out of that machine. I'm not letting you out of my sight.

Veltrax the Wolvcha from the planet Wolvcha, and Captain Trash, the human named Blaine Travis from the planet Earth are walking through the mystical jungle on the lost Island of Sabat...

It's a lovely day out here Trash, but what exactly are we looking for?

Veltrax. I didn't want to explain until we got to the island, but I think it's safe now. You see, I got a psychic message.

A psychic message? From who?

That I don't know. Someone powerful. Someone powerful enough to get the message to me from the ghost dimension.

Wow, a ghost sent you a message? What did it say?

It told me to come to this island. And even gave me instructions on how to get here. What I am looking for is some kind of hidden laboratory.

Who hid it?

This is where it get's weird. Apparently it is the hidden laboratory of the Big M Trio. They built it on this island and apparently it has been abandoned ever since the Big M Trio stopped existing.

You used to work with them didn't you?

I sure did.

What happened to them? And why can't Pattee tell you where this laboratory is?

Well. It's a long story, but here goes...

THE BIG M TRIO

Once the world's greatest superhero cat team, now just a distant memory.

SUPER SALLY

THE BIG M

POWER PATTEE

They lived and worked in the MHQ, a pretty fancy building that was conveniently right beside my Trash Can Hideout in Canada.

They were true heroes and helped out cats and people, and saved the world on more occasions than I can remember.

However one night during a rather vicious showdown with their mortal enemy Doctor Psycho in an old abandoned warehouse...

Doctor Psycho set off a bomb that destroyed everything and everyone!

KA-BOOM!

The Big M Trio was no more.

Pattee was later re-born by way of ancient magicks within the heart of a planet. But in her new existence her memories of her old life were fractured. And she remembers very little of her time with the Big M Trio. That is why she can not help me on my quest.

By the end of Captain Trash's story about the Big M Trio, they find themselves in front of what appears to be an ancient temple!

I think this may be it. The secret lab is probably inside this temple. I did some research before we left. It's the Temple of Tamameowmas. And it's the only building on this entire island.

Well what are we waiting for? Let's find out who sent that message, and what this is all about!

Wait a minute.. Look. We're not alone.

Stepping out from hiding are several members of the Military Armadillos from the planet Animole world.

Military Armadillos? What are they doing here?

I'm not sure but it looks like this guy is in charge.

Good afternoon gentlemen. I'm Sgt.Stripe. I am in charge of this operation.

Operation? What's going on here?

Well my dear Captain Trash. That is entirely for me to know and for you to never know. This entire island is under the jurisdiction of the Military Armadillos, and I would ask you to vacate the area immediately.

And if we don't?

Well, then things get complicated, and we would be forced to.. Dispose of you.
